Report on Six-Day Youth Cooperative Education Classes

Organized by Shri K. K. Shastri Government Commerce College, Ahmedabad
In Collaboration with Gujarat State Co-operative Union (GSCU), Ahmedabad

- Introduction

Shri K. K. Shastri Government Commerce College, Ahmedabad organized a Six-Day Youth Cooperative Education Program in collaboration with the Gujarat State Co-operative Union (GSCU) from 07th July 2025 to 12th July 2025. The primary objective of the program was to impart knowledge about the cooperative movement, values, and practices to youth, and to cultivate leadership skills among students for their active participation in cooperative development.

- About GSCU

The Gujarat State Co-operative Union (GSCU), established in 1960, is the apex cooperative organization of Gujarat. With its headquarters at Ahmedabad, GSCU has been working in the field of cooperative education, training, promotion, and dissemination for more than six decades. The Union has played a crucial role in strengthening cooperative institutions, fostering rural development, and creating awareness among the youth about cooperative principles. Through its Co-operative Education Training Scheme, GSCU has been actively conducting programs across the state with the support of district cooperative unions and instructors.
